“ Dear Diane,

Nancy and I were very shocked and saddened to hear about Wendell's passing which came so suddenly after we had such a good visit with him in the Hospice a day or two before he was transferred home; we are sorry that we missed seeing you. We feel that we were especially blessed to know and to love you and Wendell; we know that we will miss the warm and friendly fellowship with the two of you, and will certainly miss Wendell's kindness and his love. On the brighter side, we know with absolute certainty that we will soon see him again in heaven.

Diane, we are praying for you today. Both Nancy and I know from personal experience what you are going through today. We truly hope that you will experience the special comfort from the Lord that he shares with those who know Him. Diane, you know that we love you, and that we are always ready to extend our help to you in any way that we can.

We hope and expect that you will call us anytime we can be of help to you or to your family. Meanwhile, please just remember that everyone who knew Wendell is grieving along with you now. We all know that our grief will be brief because we all realize that Wendell is already with the Lord and is already experiencing the love that comes from Him alone!

With much love to you and the family,

Nancy and Lynn Jordan

“ To the Hickman Family,

Wendell was truly a joy to know! When I first began in the medical business, he mentored me and explained all the complexities of our industry. I will never forget his kind heart and gentle demeanor. I will keep you all in my prayers.

God bless,
