“ I would like to express my condolence to the Bartlett family. I work with Denise Wilson (daughter) at MetLife (Aliso Viejo, Ca) and although I cannot say I can directly share and help during your time of loss, you are in my prayers. May the Lord Jesus uphold you always.###imported-begin###Alex Toledo###imported-end###

“ I'm so sorry for your loss, and that I was unable to attend the services (although I had someone sign in my absence). Ralph was one of the best, most enjoyable, and pleasant men I knew. He was loved by all. He will be missed, but only here on Earth. One day, we'll see him again.##imported-begin##Mike Dill##imported-end##

“ Gail, I will not be at Ralph's service; however, I wanted you to know that I have been praying for you and your family since 5/13/09. I had not even known that Ralph had been ill. This is just to touch base with you and I will write to you later. Sending my love and prayers. Carl and Barbara Owens##imported-begin##Barbara Knighten Owens##imported-end##

“ I have been blessed to have known your husband and your father. Each Friday he would bring your Mother to get her hair or her nails done and then it would be our time to chat awhile. He reminded me sso of my wonderful grandfather. He had a winderfuk gentleness about him. I loved listening to his stories of his family his work and his golf ativities. He treasured his family so, often telling me about his grandsons...I shall miss his visits with me...Rosie from FreshGrind Coffee.##imported-begin##Rosie##imported-end##
