“ I worked with Nick at SCC. Real good man who cared for others. Always enjoyed talking to him about the Lord. He is a special person and I'm sure heaven is a little brighter today because of his presence. May his family and friends be comforted by the Lord and His peace fall upon you.

I want to thank you for the kind words that you said about my husband Nicholas Head. He talked about you often. He was so kind and so sweet. I love that man more than anything or anyone in my whole life (that walks on this earth)!! He was the best Christian person (man) that I've ever known he taught me so much about God and how to live for God, not to judge people and how to be a good Christian person. I could go on forever about what he taught me. He had such a kind soul and had a wonderful personality!!! My mother passed away and he taught her (Pat Jenkins Burluson) so much before her death. I got saved April 13th 2014 and that is due to Nicholas Head showing me what being a true Christian was. I would never ask him to come back here on this Earth because of how much pain Nick was in before he ran through pearly white gates. True Christians don't judge others, that is one thing he strongly believed in. I just wish people would quit judging me! I believe that Nicholas will know these kinds words you said about him. I will love that man until the day I die! Robert this is also what he taught me, what true love is, because he truly loved me as his wife and as him friend. I know I make him proud (everyday) because of the life that I live because of what Nicholas Head taught to me!!! God bless you young man. We will see Ralph Nicholas Head in heaven. I truly know that Nick knows what great friends he did have!!! Thanks for the friendship you and many others gave him!!! Please if you have time please call me it's IMPORTANT to me hear how he (Nick) made a difference in others lives or just to hear stories about Nicholas Head. God bless you and your beautiful family!!!

“ Lainey and Carolyn, I am so sorry for your loss of Nick. I have such good memories of the years that I spent with all of you. In my mind's eye, Nick is seven years old and still that little boy that I met for the first time with that big smile that he had. You are in my thoughts and prayers always.

“ Prayers and love go out to the entire family. Was in church with he and his family all our lives. I remember even as a young person, he was shy yet when someone was needed to play Joseph in the Christmas play he stepped up to the plate. He was willing to do whatever was needed at the time. I know that today he is rejoicing with his dad and that we will see him again.
