“ Dad it's been six years now a day doesn't go by that I don't think of you. I miss you with everything I have. I still remember the times we would go fishing and the times we would go hunting but never get anything because I wouldn't stay. Still I rember the days we would sit in bed and watch tv. I remember the diet cokes you would buy. I remember how you would put me first before anything and I can't think you enough. I wish I could call you and tell you about everything that has happened in the six years you been gone. Since then I got a welding scholar and I'm on my last year of high school. Now it's getting to where I don't know what to say but I'm thinking it. I can't be more happy to call you my dad. I love you.

“ He loved playing tricks. His favorite was in the morning when I would try an wake him up. He would act like he was still asleep. Wait about five minutes then jump at me an scare me. No matter what I always fell for that. He always got a good laugh out of that. I'm going to miss you I love you daddy ?.
