“ I went to school with Randy from 3rd grade through graduation. We were friends, neighbors and unfortunately lost touch over the years. I was contacting old classmates and heard that sad news. I truly regret we won't get to talk about old times. God Bless his family and please accept my belated sincere sympathy.##imported-begin##Joanne Nielsen Isaacs##imported-end##

“ To all that have responded; Thank you for your compasssion through this very difficult time for each and everyone of us. As his past,present and future has been in the hands of God. His last days with us he was very happy and full of big plans, but his plans did not include those whom have been left behind to endure the pain and confusion but his love , beautiful smile and blue eyes will always penetrate those whom he loved and who loved him. May he rest now with no worries or pain, may he fill us with the eternal salvation of God-like attitude and strength.

Forever

“ Lisa,
You know I was there from when you and Randy first met.. I loved Peep Daddy so much. We had some really great times hanging out and laughing. I remeber the first time I met him at the apts. He was smiling then and still saying RUT ROW RAGGY!! I loved when he would say that. I was so glad you two ended up together. He was so happy around you.. He just enjoyed life . I know he loved his boys but he also found love for Tina and Tony and treated them as if they were his own. Randy was a great man and I dont know of anyone he every came across that did not love him. I know this was all so very hard for you and I am so glad god worked it out for me to be there for you. I love you and you know I am here anytime anyplace you need me.
Love and prayers
