“Your whole family is so special to us. We're so sorry for the hard times you're going through but we have full confidence that the Lord Jesus will gently carry you through it. Your description of Ray as loving God and appreciating the simple joys in life is so true! I loved that he was always fascinated to learn new things. I have a vivid memory of him excitedly telling us about a new variety of apple that he'd heard about - Honeycrisp. I can still hear him describing it. "They say it's the sweetest, crispest variety ever!" To this day, I can't eat a Honeycrisp without thinking of him. Sweet memories.
