“ Approximately 2 years ago, I had the privilege of meeting Mr Raymond Moore and his lovely wife “Ms Jackie” Moore. Mr Raymond and Ms Jackie made me feel welcomed into their home.. “Have you ever met someone for the first time and it seemed you had known them for a lot longer period of time? One thing about my friend “Mr Raymond”, was, he seemed to have had a knack for telling a good story. I always enjoyed listening as he told stories of his 23 years as a “World Traveler” in the United States Army. Also, stories about farming. Good stories.

However, his eyes would light up when he told stories about his love of his life, “Ms Jackie.” Upon one visit with my wife and I, Mr Raymond excused himself returned shortly thereafter with a picture. He proudly stated, “ This is the love of my life.” It was a picture of The love of his life , Ms Jackie. He loved to, also ,show pictures of his son Jeff and his family , and his two daughters Tracy and Merrideth and their families. He loved all of his family very much. He was concerned a lot about his brother Carrol's health when his own health was worsening.

Mr Raymond was also a caring man. He cared about his community and his fellow man.

“My friend Mr Raymond you surely will be missed but never forgotten,”

I say to, Ms Jackie his wonderful wife of 60 years, his son Jeff , his daughters Tracy, Merrideth, and all other family members, “Rejoice in the many years of wonderful memories this “Extraordinary Man,.” Raymond Earl Moore, has given to you.

May God bless you all.
