“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to us all. It is especially an enemy when it strike someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Then the words of Jesus will be fulfilled that reads: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." (John 5:28) I hope these words will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.##imported-begin##Rosa Brown##imported-end##

“ Leigh & Blair I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I I don't know what it means to lose your Mom but my Dad has been dead for 13 years and it can only say that in time it gets easier. Just knowing that they are in a better place and there is no more suffering is a blessing. I am praying for the family. I did not know your Mom that well but the times I talked with her she was a very sweet person and she raised two very sweet girls. May God be with you through this time stay strong in your faith and one day you will be reunited with her in heaven. I am praying for the family.
