“ I have known Mrs Clark for many years as a faithful member of our Church. I remember that first service that her and her family visited, and the service that they joined in. As we all stood in line to greet them, I remember thinking how sweet of family they were. I remember going to her daughter, Lydia's wedding and rejoicing with them over God's blessings. I remember how joyful she was over each of her grand babies. I remember fervently praying for them as they faced a deep trial of faith and hurt, not knowing what to do or say to help. I remember the moment I heard that her husband, Bro. Grady had passed and thinking how much I took his kindness and friendship for granted. I watched her serve faithfully in our Christian school, and Church even through her darkest days. She leaves behind an incredible legacy of faith and faithfulness that will impact this world in ways that we may never fully know. What I think about her life, I know echoes what she heard the moment she passed over to Heaven, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

“ *Mrs. Clark left behind a testimony of a life lived for her Saviour! She often talked about wanting to go and see her Heavenly Father and her husband. I can't imagine the reunion that took place when she walked into heaven! Her prayers have been answered! Praying for the family in the coming days as they honor her life and memory. “ Mrs. Clark had an amazing testimony of one who truly loved the Lord. She was always telling people about her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and always had an invitation for all to come to her church. This was the week that our church was having a Revival Meeting. In the middle of the week she topped off everyone's "revival" Oh what a meeting in the air she had! We'll see you again Mrs. Clark. “ Mrs. Clark definitely loved The Lord and serving Him was her life. I can only imagine the joy that filled her heart when she first entered His Presence.
Praying for each of you through this time while we wait until the day we see her again.

“ Although we never had the honor of meeting Mrs. Clark, she was a sister in Christ, a mother, and a grandmother.....all these we have in common. My Godly Mother died in June of last year. We cared for her more than 10 years. It leaves a huge void, but we have the Blessed hope of being reunited for eternity. We are new to Pleasant View Baptist Church, however it feels just like home. Please accept our prayers and love extended to you. Bob and Marilyn Russell
