

Richard Klingler

June 8, 1961 - March 30, 2012

Richard Lee (Colonel) Klingler, 50, of 258 Pink Dill Mill Road, died March 30, 2012 at St. Francis Hospital.

A native of Lima, Ohio, son of Ruby Marie Dodge Klingler and the late Richard Malcolm Klingler, he was a former employee of Trimite Powders and played the harmonica in the band "Cross Roads".

Also surviving are his wife, Reneti Lee Ginter Klingler of the home and his sister, Christine Moore of Vera Beach, Florida.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Tribute Wall

“ Almost 8 months later and it still doesn't seem real. I think about you and miss you every single day Uncle Rick!!##imported-begin##Nikki Kaiser##imported-end##

November 05, 2012 at 03:59 PM

“ Ruby, Reneti, and Chris Our prayers are with you. Colone was my best man at our wedding in 1984 .He was one of the MOTLEY CREW .He could always make us laugh##imported-begin##Max and Marcia McCafferty##imported-end##

April 03, 2012 at 08:51 PM

“ RIP Col-Rick, You will be missed! Your family is in our prayers!

*We love ya,
Leonard,Lisa,Hannah & Haley Satterfield##imported-begin##Lisa Satterfield##imported-end##*

April 03, 2012 at 01:54 PM

“ Rest in Peace Rick. Praying for Ruby, Chris and your wife that God is with them during this time. Love and peace to your families.##imported-begin##Lee Ann Tlmmerman##imported-end##

April 01, 2012 at 09:12 AM