“ My Uncle Bob was one of the most important men in my life. I always look up to him. He seemed to know something about everything. He was always there for me and will miss him beyond words that I can express.

“ God is the only one who can heal human hearts following the death of a loved one. He does that by soothing words that promise to raise the death in his kingdom. “The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will come out.” (John 5:28) Those are the words of Jesus. Millions remember celebrities for decades after their death.

God will surely remember the lowest of the righteous ones. We could have no greater assure than that.###imported-begin###Charles Reams###imported-end###

“ Aunt Bea, Nancy and John,
Our deepest condolences. We will remember him for his sense of humor and his kindness. Bobby took this news rather hard, but seemed better when I spoke to him last night. I think he was grateful to talk with Nancy. Ed called from the UP of Michigan, so we were able to let him know as well. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you and your family.##imported-begin##Ed and Lori Sharpe##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,
I am sad to hear of the passing of Uncle Bob. I will always remember him as a person with a big smile and always joking with everyone. He will be missed. My thoughts are with you as you lay your husband, father and friend to rest. He lived a long life and rich with the love of his family. Love always, Leanne##imported-begin##Leanne Leach##imported-end##

“ We will miss Grandpa Arnold so very much! He has been such an awesome presence in our lives and we will always cherish the memories that are a part of our lives. I am thankful to God that Grandma & Grandpa Arnold raised such a wonderful man as my Dad, Tom Arnold. I know that he learned to be such a great Dad from his Dad, Grandpa Arnold. We will always love Grandpa and be forever grateful that God blessed our family with his presence!
