

Robert "Bob" H. Kazian

December 9, 1948 - October 21, 2021

Standing in the victory of the Cross, Robert "Bob" Hrand Kazian, 72, met his Savior face to face on October 21, 2021. His earthly life is now complete. He fought a good fight, he ran a faithful race, and is now embraced by his Lord. A native of Dobbs Ferry, New York, son of the late Leon and Ann Gurbikian Kazian, he was a retired mechanical engineer, a member of Faith Baptist Church of Taylors, and a U.S. Air Force Veteran. Bob treasured his family and time spent with his grandkids. He was full of wit and wisdom, never missed a detail, could fix anything, and never failed to make a friend. He loved Pontiac GTO's and restored several himself. Lionel model trains were another one of his passions, and he dreamed of setting up a large, operating train layout for his grandkids.

Surviving are his wife, Brenda Bergstrom Kazian of the home; one son, Jason Robert Kazian (Sara) of Greenville; two daughters, Kimberly Jane Vaughn, (Joe) of Folsom, California and Heather Lynn Helms (Jimmy) of Taylors; one brother, Greg Kazian (Lee) of Greer; three sisters, Dianne Gailey of Simpsonville, Gloria Kazian of Simpsonville and Sandra Shepherd of Greenville; and nine grandchildren, Frazor, Hunter, Macy, Jack, Lily, Zoe, Jameson, Zeke and Lizzy.

He was also predeceased by one grandson, Caleb.

Funeral services will be held 9:30 a.m. Monday, October 25, 2021, at Faith Baptist Church, 500 West Lee Road, Taylors, SC, conducted by Pastor John Monroe and Pastor Joe Vaughn. Interment will follow at 1:00 p.m. at M.J.
