“ "Major Bob" is an old Marine Corps League friend from Durango and Pagosa Springs CO. I didn't know he moved to SC, as did I. I really regret we didn't connect here. We shared many hours together travelling to MCL meetings around the expansive State of Colorado. I never tired of hearing his "sea stories" and many exploits covering his very unusual (USN, USA, USMC) military career. Angie and I send our heartfelt condolences to Bob's family and friends. I will let others in CO know of Bob's passing immediately. God willing. I will attend his funeral!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Dobbins family during this difficult time. Please accept my condolences on the loss of your father. Please know my loving thoughts embrace you each and every day.

I have fond memories of your father and of Pat and Dyan in our times together in the Panama Canal Zone. Your father was such and extraordinary military man and warrior. A real “Quiet Professional.” He always made me feel like I was around such a patriot and hero. He touched my life in a very special way and I had the utmost respect for him! I am deeply saddened for your family’s loss. Rest in Peace Major Dobbins! Art Serig
