“ Moving to Greer my senior year was hard, but meeting Tammy, Martha, and Bob made it so much easier. The highlight of hanging out at Tammy's house was listening to Bob's jokes and silly stories. Tammy and her father had a close and supportive relationship and his love for her was evident in everything he did. Over the years he would reach out during important times in my life, and I appreciated his thoughtfulness. I am grateful to have known him; he will be cherished and missed.
