

Robert Lee Helm

January 16, 1965 - February 14, 2026

With heavy hearts and deep love, we honor the life of Robert E. Lee Helm, Sr., who passed away on February 14, 2026, at the age of 61.

Born on January 16, 1965, in Anaheim, CA and raised in Las Vegas, NV, Robert grew into a man whose strength, passion, and heart left a lasting imprint on everyone blessed to know him.

From a young age, Robert was a fighter in the very best sense of the word. As a wrestler, he poured himself into the sport, earning the Nevada State title in high school and later achieving the honor of All American Wrestling Champion in college. Wrestling taught him discipline and resilience, but more than that, it revealed his heart; he never backed down from a challenge and never let those around him settle for less than their best.

Basketball was another love of his life. As long as he had a ball and a court, he was home. But for Robert, it was never just about the game, it was about the people. It was about teaching, pushing, laughing, and building something bigger than himself.

Robert studied Carpentry and Welding at VoTech in Las Vegas, carrying that same hands-on determination into his career. For more than ten years, he worked as a proud garbage man at Kirby's Sanitation, working side by side with his son. He often joked that if there were a "Garbage Man Olympics," he would be the front runner. He wore his work with pride but the title he cherished most was Father.

He raised his sons in Las Vegas with strength, structure, and unwavering love before spending the last decade of his life in Spartanburg, SC which he proudly called home. Coaching was his true calling. He coached hard because he believed in hard work-built character. He demanded excellence because he saw greatness in people before they saw it in themselves, and no matter how tough he pushed you, he would give you the shirt off his back without hesitation.

Robert was the kind of man who made everything more fun. His presence filled a room. His laughter was contagious. His belief in you felt unshakable. He wanted something better for everyone and would exhaust every ounce of himself trying to help you reach it. He leaves behind his beloved life partner, Latosha Peoples; his sons, Robert Helm, II and Franky Helm, who were his pride and purpose. He is also survived by his father, Lester Kirby Helm; his sisters, Susan Helm and Teresa Helm; and countless extended family members, friends, athletes, and community members who will forever hear his voice pushing them to be stronger.

He was welcomed home by his mother, Carol Ann Truck; his brothers, Dennis Helm and Casper Helm; and his son, Lester Helm.

Robert's legacy is not measured in titles or trophies, but in the lives, he shaped, the young men he mentored, the laughter he created, and the love he poured into his family. And if he could leave us with one final piece of advice, it would be simple and strong, just like him; "Keep your head up, you'll be alright." In that spirit, we will carry him with us standing tall, pushing forward, and lifting one another the way he always did.
