“ Case, you are deeply going to be missed by a “whole lot” of family and friends. Your practical jokes, and kind heart were one of a kind. For one, I am “really” going to miss when I leave town, wondering what your going to do to my house, my driveway, etc.

I guess the 2 funniest are when you parked your pontoon boat in our driveway while we were out of town, and the HomeOwners association gave me 24 hours to have it removed. Or, could it be the time you put a “For Sale” sign in the front of our house and I had 2 people to call me interested in coming to see it.

Case Jenkins (my bud), your going to be missed as you have made an impression on ANYONE that has ever known or met you. Especially that smiling face and “jolly” attitude that you always had. Rest assured, your friends and family are all going to “rally” around LouAnne, Sam, Austin, and Taylor. We love you pal!!!!!!

“ My prayers are with Louann and their children today, I was shocked when I heard he had passed away and my first thought was that his birthday was just a few days earlier. I hadn't called to wish him happy birthday and I regretted it. Casey and his mom and dad were always kind to us and we shared many holidays, celebrations and gatherings.

The last time I saw Case was about two months ago at the Coach House in Simpsonville. I was going out after picking up my food, he came out and said hello and we talked for a little while, it was good to see him again. He's gone for now but not forever, Rest In Peace cousin.

“ Case was always so kind to my parents (Lou's Aunt Pat & Uncle Jim). I remember visiting Stone Mountain with him and Lou's family. My dad had Parkinson's and was struggling to keep up with us walking. He was a very proud man and did not want the group to be slowed down by him. Case was so kind--staying with him and making sure he was OK. It really touched my heart. I'm so sorry for your loss. Our family will be praying for you and sending hugs in the days to come. Love to you all--Tracey

“ I always enjoyed his posts on the "Fountain Inn Residents". His humor provided laughs for so many. He will be missed. We will laugh again, just not as often.....

“ Case and I would do our best to annoy one another. He would almost always sneak up behind me and just laugh if he scared me. However, on the other side of Case was a big heart. A big heart that you might never guess he had, because he liked to seem tough.

One Wednesday night he rode along with me in the church bus. As we made our stops, Case was quite and that was unusual. Once we stopped to pick up one child with special needs, Case anxiously inquired about the child and immediately let the child's mother know that he would like to help this child with any testing or anything his special needs required. He proceeded to give the mother his name and number and stressed to her to call him. "Call me, I'm serious" he said. I'm thankful that recently, God brought him and his family back to Crossroads. My prayer is that Louann and the family can find God's strength to get through this very difficult time. My hugs and kisses to this sweet family, Wanda Andrews
