Today is Nov 2 and I just became known of Robs passing. I am truly shocked; but also very aware life can be taken in the blink of an eye. Rob loved his family and animals; was very kind and generous. He will not be forgotten. Many heartfelt prayers for Sandie, AJ, Chase, and Jianna ❤️

“ First of all I would like to express my gratitude in viewing a wonderful service. The passing of my cousin Robbie really hit home in many ways. A huge part of my life was visiting my cousins Julie, Bill, Jack and Robbie when they lived in Lake Isabella it was awesome. I learned how to ride a dirt bike. I was around Robbie until he was 11yo and remember him being a character as a young boy. I felt I got to know the adult Robbie through the words of his family and it was very comforting to hear his accomplishments and important values of life. My prayers will be Robbies peace in heaven and that Sandy, AJ, Chase and Joanna find comfort. Love, Johnny Hannah

“ Rob (nob) will be missed by so many. Past couple days since hearing the sad news have reminisced about all the fun over the years we worked together in Vegas. In travels since, I will see a drawing here or there of "creamy" and would laugh wondering if he had been there and left his mark. I imagine Rob, J.J. and Oscar are catching up and sharing memories of their own now. Our deepest condolences to Sandie, A.J., Chase, Jianna, Bill, Jack, and Julie your Husband/Father/Brother was a great friend and person in so many ways. With Love Brent & Melani Kline and Family

“ Oh Sandie, that service was so beautiful. The words from your hearts, so warmly expressed. Our hearts are breaking from this sudden loss for your kids, you, Rob's family & friends. It doesn't seem possible. Rob only 19 when Eric started working with him. We were all crazy kids together. And the honor Eric had of being in your wedding. I remember smiling when we'd sit a few rows behind you guys at Canyon Ridge and Rob would be twirling your hair in his fingers, always reaching for you. The sunflower song, OMG, just 2 nights ago E was leaving for his new night shift job at McCarran and he went to kiss me goodbye and I was eating sunflower seeds. We laughed cuz I said, oh no, I'll have stinky sunflower seed breath like Rob (E used to say that smell always reminded him of Rob eating seeds). Your amazing kids are such a reflection of the love you & Rob poured out. I am SO very sad for this day but take incredible comfort in knowing that Rob is flying high, surrounded by utter peace & beauty and is free of every burden he carried here, finally wrapped in perfect peace. Our hearts are with you & the kids and we send our love and the warmest hugs. Praying for you all ❤️

“ Dear Sandie and Family, words seem so useless at a time like this. It's hard to put into words just how sorry we are for your tremendous loss. Rob was such a light in this world and you we all his whole world, his whole life. Cherish all of the wonderful memories that you have with him. He loved you all very much. Sending love and prayers your way.

“ My prayers go out to Robbie's family and other people he has touched along the way. He was the first friend I made when I moved to Las Vegas. Ill never forget the waterskiing weekends, and fishing trips with his brothers and friends. I was proud to have been his best man at his wedding. He loved his wife and children very much. I want Austin, Chase and Jianna to know that they can call me if they ever need anything, or just want to talk. God bless.

“ We all KHS Class of 87 alumni are deeply saddened by your loss. Rob left us for Vegas in 86 as his family relocated and he left this world way to soon. I could go on and on talking about how awesome he was, but this post might take up to many pages. I personally remember calling information trying to track him down when I moved to California (this was before cell and internet) 411. Pretty sure I woke his mom and asked for Rob. We were able to visit in his home town on several occasions after and reminisce about all the great times we had back in Kingwood Texas. We miss you brother!!

“ Sandi, AJ, Chase and Jianna, we are so saddened to hear of the passing of our friend Rob. Darryl and Rob worked together here in Las Vegas and shared a lot of aviation time together. We will forever miss his smiling face when we would come over and talk about nothing. Just remember that earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. We are here for you, we are praying for you and most importantly we love you guys.

*Sandie,AJ,Chase and Jianna-
So terribly sad to learn of your loss. I met Rob back in 1990 when I was living in Las Vegas with my bestie Sandie when they first started dating. I have many happy memories of Rob, and how fun he was from back then, and in the years to come. He will always be missed, that witty response, and quirky asides he would give. Definitely one of a kind and a very special person. I will be praying for you all that God will help you focus on the good memories, and help you heal from this tragedy. Rob always told me how proud of his kids he was, and I know he will continue to smile down on you 3.*

“ Sandie and Kids please know the hearts of your Stevens' family are broken over the sudden, tragic loss of Rob. He was always quick to smile and hum a tune. Rob made Stevens a better place and he will be greatly missed. You will always be a part of the Stevens' Family so please do not hesitate to call upon us for assistance. Love and Prayers.
