“ Pop Taylor was a man I loved dearly. He was a man of patience, love, and kindness. I loved the times we went camping and visiting at his home with family. He loved Margaret his wife and would do anything in his power to make her happy. He was a loyal family man and loved his children and grandchildren.
I will miss you and will remember all your kindness and love you showed me and my children. My prayers are with the family.
