“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family of a wonderful person. Robert never failed to create the most wonderful arrangements for our family, and always said don't worry it will be fine whenever I asked if that was the "right" flower arrangement to send. It always was more than right it was perfect.##imported-begin##Sonya Hallman##imported-end##

“ We are so very sorry for the loss of Robert. He touched the lives of so many people in such a positive way. Carmel has worked for him for over 5 years during which Robert has taught her so much and treated her so well. He will certainly be missed. Robert was a good friend.##imported-begin##Henry and Carmel Mueller##imported-end##

“ In many respects it seems it was yesterday when I first met Horace, Robert and Reid, and then the rest of the family..it was in fact 1943. Some of us were school mates and friends. I remember going by Faye's where Robert worked after school, and watch him work beautiful works of art from flowers that a loving God had created. I thought that Robert was shy, but could he every talk to hearts in times of Joy and in sorrow with his art. I've seen little of the family in the passing of time, Reid was the last, but in my heart has always been admiration of three special men, and don't you know Mr. & Mrs. McKown beam with Joy as Robert enters forever into the courts of our Father. Horace, Earline, Marie may God Bless you,##imported-begin##Alton Brown##imported-end##

“ I knew Robert (and Reid) professionally, but I must share with the family that it was a wonderful and trusting relationship. I am a florist and always knew that any order I sent to McKowns would be handled well. My prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Sharon Angelakos##imported-end##
