“ We called you Dad because you had that caring concerning demeanor ... you were always missed when you left on a trip and was always on our minds until you return. We loved you just as you were. We shared many stories of now and of then. Always thinking of the less fortunate and wanting to take care of all those who loved you. You were definitely a one of a kind man. Now for Mom (Maxine) she will miss you more than any of us she was so devoted to you and all those around her knew that. We will be there for her ...for you. I hope you know she will be taken good care of and she will never be lonely with Missy in her site. We loved you Dad and will be missed greatly. Love Lamar & Karen

“ What can I say about Rollan, other than his kindness that radiated to all who knew him, as well as his great humor and intelligence. Knowing Rollan was feeling cherished in very deep and meaningful way.

My condolences to his beautiful wife, Maxine, all his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and his entire family. He was one of a kind and he will live in my heart forever.

In God's love, Amanda Ciolino

“ *I worked with Rollan in the early 80's in Melbourne, Australia. He was my 'mate' and I was his 'buddy'. Never had I met a man whose strength and sincerity engendered such respect and warmth from those around him. He was , without doubt a great and effective communicator and therefore a great leader. I am blessed to be able to call him 'friend'.
Wherever you are you will put smiles on faces. Thanks for the knowing. Kaz (Melbourne, Australia)*

“ I know Rollan and Maxine through his sister Regina. The first time you meet him you can't help but love him. He was full of smiles and happiness, jokes, so generous and he never met a stranger. He was goodness. And we loved him. And we will miss his huge presence when he enters a room. He will watch over all those he loved. With his beautiful smile touching our hearts.

“ Condolences from our family to yours. Everyone in the neighborhood loved Mr. Rollan he was a very optimistic person and a funny guy. We loved to stop and talk to him all the time, we had countless of wonderful and funny conversations. Rollan was the type of man to give you the shirt off his back and expect nothing in return. May his would rest in peace.
