“ Ron was an excellent human being who had a great sense of purpose. He would always leave me impressed with his thought process and extremely courteous demeanor.

Ron – You will be missed.

May Ron's family have the courage and support from each other to tide through this difficult time.

“ Ron was a great friend and guide. He taught me that honesty and hardwork is all you will ever need to be a success. Even though he was a colleague, I will miss a warm friend who was there for me all the time.

Rest in Peace my Friend, I will miss you.

My sinciere condolences to the Family.

Sowmya (my wife) and my 2 little children (Aditi and Avni) join the family in prayer - God Bless you and the soul of Ronald Steven Williams.

“ I will always remember Ron as a man of unwavering integrity, high energy and someone with an extraordinary ability to instantly draw people towards him.

It was my privilege to have hired him into WNS and work closely with him these past two years. I will miss a dear friend and colleague. I am happy I had a great conversation with him just this past Friday (Dec 4th).

Rest in peace buddy and keep smiling!

“ I have to say that as a wife of a wounded warrior and a fellow military wife I am grateful for Mr Ron's service. I am also grateful to his wife for being a military wife as it is not an easy job as well. My family will pray for peace and healing to Mrs Williams and family that the Lord may walk with them and remember the amazing times or laughter they shared. This time will never be easy but remembering that Gods path isnt always one that we understand but it is the one that is planned for us. Love and prayers to all, Leroy, Taryn, Madison, Jaden, Keke, Ash'lin, Jr and Da'Kari Esco
