“ I know this is years later, but we all miss you papa so much. I miss being at your house all the time waking up to you or yiyi cooking breakfast. I miss seeing you so happy putting peanuts in your Pepsi. I know you are in a better place for sure, but I wish you were still here with your beautiful smile that could light up any room. At least the last time I saw you I was able to give you a bracelet that said angel , because that is what you truly are. Rip forever and always , and I'll see you again one day. 🦋☐
Love you

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you Beth, and your family. When Ron entered a room, it lit up with his jovial smile and great sense of humor! There aren't that many genuinely happy people, he was a rare find! Please take time and be comforted with all the good memories that will stay forever in your heart.

With Condolences,
David, Michelle, & Children

“ I had the privilege of working with Ron for a number of years. I found him to be a warm and generous man, considerate with his words and actions. My heart goes out to all of his loved ones in this difficult time.

“ A memory of my brother Ronnie I'll always cherish is his testimony of how he accepted Jesus as his personal Saviour! He said the pastor gave the invitation and he felt the tug on his heart and then his whole body and new he was on his way to the alter! He said he ask The Lord to forgive all his sins and come into his heart. He said "Mott, tears rolled my face, and you know I don't cry"!!! So, I'm sure today our "golden boy" is walking, yes walking on streets of Gold!!!!

I love you my precious brother!

*Love,
Mott*

“ We enjoyed getting to know Ron over the years. He was always smiling and taught me many new southern expressions. ("Coming up a cloud" being one of them.) He was a wonder father-in-law to our son John and we will all miss him. John and Kathy Lago

“ Every time we seen Ron, he always had a big smile on his face. It was a happy smile that made you know you were important to him and he was happy to see you. I know he is smiling with the angels and keeping them on their toes. He will be missed and he was truly loved by everyone who met him. Rest in peace sweet friend. You have earned your crown.

“ Dale and I are so sorry for your loss. Ron was quite the character. I loved that Georgia boy accent. Beth and I shared many stories about our husbands and decided they were twins. Favorite memories are of our trip to Kiawah, romantic nights, too much partying and Ron making a whopping breakfast for those of us who could get up in the morning. Ron was a terrible teaser, always made us northerners feel welcome and kept me laughing. He will be missed by his family and a long list of friends.

“ Ronny had a love for the Ga. Bulldogs like no other!!! My fondest memory of Ronny was when I was a child. We were on our way home on a Friday night from visiting with my grandparents. Ronny was on his way to my grandparents. As both cars were passing each other down a long dirt road in Madison Co. Ga. Excitement filled our car, "it's uncle Ronny!" Brake lights appeared as both cars proceeded to reverse gear. Ronny opens his car door and yells out, "how about them dawgs!" My mama says, "what about the dawgs?" Ronny reaches inside his vehicle and turns up the radio. Wide open might I add. A sound could not be heard for miles around, I am sure of this. Only the song coming from his radio as his danced around to the tune of "hunker down hairy dawgs." Oh, let's not forget at my parents wedding shower, I recall him giving them a Ga. Bulldog tag as his and Beth's gift. Wrapped up in a huge box filled with lots of tissue paper. Lol He so loved his Ga. Bulldogs. And we loved him!!!
