“ I worked with Ron at Tyco. I also worked with his daughter Patty. They both became really good friends of mine. Ron was my "work Dad". He was always there to help, to listen, or take care of anything any of his employees needed. He always went over and above for work and especially his family. He will be missed. Love and prayers for his family. God will be there for all of you.

Ron was a longtime coworker at Tyco. He was always a can do guy. It was a pleasure working with him and I cherish the opportunity to know him. RIP Ron, I know you will be riding in the sky.
