“ I had been out of touch with cousin Ronny for a very long time. I think I was about 10 or so when he and his family moved away from East Liverpool, OH and went away to far off California. My favorite memory of Ronny is rolling a cement yard roller through a forested area trying to take it back to his house when we ran over a yellow jackets nest and they chased us all the way home running as fast as our little legs could carry us, batting stinging yellow jackets off each other as we ran. We will all miss Ronny.##imported-begin##Buddy Bayless##imported-end##
