“ Mandi, Kaytlyn, and theNewton Family. I hate to hear of Ronnies passing. He had an infectious smile that he shared with most everyone and I remember a cute young msn with a bald head as a freshman who made his place by earning the respect of his fellow men and peers at Greer. He was very well liked, had a great personality and I know he will be terribly missed. Each one of you hold on to your special memories and moments with him. He was a good man, a fine example of what a good Christian man is to be at home, at church, work and the community. May you feel Gods grace, mercy and love during this difficult journey.
Respectfully,

“ My family lived a couple of house down from the Newton's in Country Club Estates when I was growing up. We had great times swimming in their backyard pool with all the other neighborhood kids. Ronnie prank called us on a few occasions when we were high school seniors pretending to be an Army sergeant or whatever. He would have us scared that we would about to be drafted or something! LOL. Ronnie was always joking and cutting up and was great fun to be around. I will always have good memories of my times with Ronnie. My condolences are with his family.

“ I remember the best looking young man with a beautiful smile and a sweetness to go with that smile. He was at my home often with my son Smokey and played with our baby boy Mitchell. He was about 11 then. He loved Smokey and Mitchell and we all lived Ronnie. We thought the world of big Ron and JoAnn too. My heart aches at Ronnie's passing for JoAnn and the entire family.. The world will be a smaller place without him. Susanne Hughes 🌹

“ Mandi. I was Ronnies friend for his time at BMW. I never met the family except last month, I caught him at Ingles with one of the daughters. I loved this man. He was crazy, a nut, goofy, very smart. very kind. He would say such off the wall stuff just to get a reaction from me. He couldn't sing for nothing, but would come in and sing something like "Do you think Im sexy". And then laugh that goofy laugh of his. He knew everyone. One day last year, Game Warden came on my Church yard to see what I was doing. Talked to him about the geese problem. Next day, telling Ronnie about it. Oh, that is my son in law. Of course . He was well thought of at work. And that new job had him walking so much..He said in 6 months, he would be down to 170lbs. It was wearing his legs out. Im sorry Mandi that you lost a husband and father for the kids. I always cry my eyes out when I lose a friend, but I think, sometimes,that they are the lucky ones. They are in Heaven with Jesus. Not hurting or worrying . And i am happy for them. I am priveledged to have Ronnie as a friend.

My prayers for the Lord to Heal your family

Sorry to hear about Ronnie. We grew up in Country Club with all the gang. Seemed like a perfect place for us kids. Craziest times rolling down Carriage Drive in a 50 gallon drum barrel, making a wild bull ride out of the same barely tied between two trees, shooting BB guns at each other playing war, building the best tree forts I ever seen, jumping ramps with anything that rolled-going for the world's record, boxing, wrestling, making smooth rocks with his little machine, rescuing our dogs from racoon attacks, etc, etc, etc, so many memories I cherish. Thank you Ronnie! GOD SPEED with big Ron now.
