“ Rodney was a cherished friend, a colleague, and a housemate at one point in time but I have always considered him a brother. We shared countless laughs and crazy adventures that I will always hold dear to my heart. Whether we were fixing cars, shooting pool, cruising on the lake, or just driving around aimlessly we always had a smile on our faces and a good laugh around every corner. The universe and heavens above have one of the very best angels imaginable. I believe death is but a door and I know when I come knocking you will be there to welcome me in so we can tear it up for eternity. Rest easy my dearest friend, until we meet again on the other side.

Dear Jodi and family
We are very sad to hear of Rodney's passing. Although life takes us on different paths and directions, childhood memories always remain in our hearts. There were many fun, crazy and exciting moments on Slocum Avenue. May he rest in peace and may God comfort all of you at this difficult time.
Sincerely,
Donna (Smith) Kennedy & Family

“ Rony was such a great man. Knew almost everything about a car, always kept his yard in good shape, and was hilarious. I'd always honk at him if I saw him in the yard or saw him playing with his toys (his cars).

A great family man with a background of dedication and servitude. I'll always remember the great times I shared with him. Miss you Rony.

“ Rony was a really funny guy. In the Academy we had study groups and Rony wanted to join our study group. But, he was a youngster and he would make fun of our group the old school gang.
