“ My hear is breaking, God gave us an earthly angel when he made Rosie. She was there for me when my mom was sick and we were not even sure she would make it through the day. That is just one of many things she did for me, if I had to list all the ways she was an awesome person and friend, my hands would hurt from typing. As anyone who knew her would say the same, she would sacrifice herself for others no matter what. I pray she knew how much she was loved and appreciated. I miss my friend and confidant, love you!!!!!!!!!!!! Johnny, kids, I am soooooo sorry for your loss, you are in mine and my families prayers.

“ Rosie was an incredible woman! One of the best memories I have is when her and I went with Johnny and some fellow coworkers to Sugar mountain ski lodge. I can't ski a lick and I think if it wasn't for this woman I would have died! Every time I fell she picked me back up and stayed right there with me the whole time to make sure I was ok. She was always so nice and caring to me and I will miss her dearly!
