

Ross Adrian Aho

June 16, 1980 - July 22, 2019

Ross Adrian Aho was born June 16, 1980 and passed away July 22, 2019 surrounded by his family.

Ross was the son of Carl W. Aho (Diane) and the late Deborah Joy Aho. Also surviving are one brother, Rhett M. Aho (Amanda) of Travelers Rest; four sisters, Katrina, Tara, Tanya Aho all of Hancock, Michigan and Kristie Aho of Greer; seven nephews; three nieces; one step-brother; two step-sisters; and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Ross was raised in the Apostolic Lutheran faith and found comfort in drifting from church to church as he was a friend to all men. Ross was a modern day philosopher and enjoyed challenging his nieces and nephews. He was often found playing a game of Chess, Spades or Trivial Pursuit. He loved God's creation and found solace in hiking, kayaking and collecting rocks. Ross was deeply loved and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

"Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God."
Matthew 5:9.

A memorial service will be held 4:00 p.m. Friday, July 26, 2019 at Eastside Apostolic Lutheran Church, 2200 Mays Bridge Road, Greer, SC 29651.

“ I only know Ross through other people. He was on my bucket list to hopefully spend an evening together at his dad's, my Uncle Carl's. It did not happen on this Earth. All who knew him, had only positive attributes. What I liked is that he 'thought outside the box' and played a mean game of chess - challenging his dad to a Saturday night/sauna ...chess challenge. It made my uncle happy. I heard it in his voice when he called me Sunday morning. R.I.P. cousin Ross! Maybe we can have that conversation in the next dimension?
