“ *My condolence to everyone who knew and loved Roy.
When I was a small child, he seemed like a giant to me.
He lived his life as a giant of kindness, generosity, and spirit. Jeff Chasteen*

“ My daddy was the Best. He loved me unconditionally. He loved my children unconditionally. He loved my sister, unconditionally, his first grand babies, and their babies. He loved my aunts and my uncle unconditionally. He thought the world of my granny and papa. He will be forever missed, but remain in our hearts until we join him in Heaven. I love you, Daddy.

“ Roy always had a beautiful smile for each person that he greeted on Sunday morning. We came to love this man that had compassion for all and asked for nothing in return. All that knew him could see the joy that was genuine and the love from Christ that he had and shared with all. He was a Blessing that will be missed here, but a jewel for heaven's gain. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Roy was a Christian gentleman. I taught Children's Ministries for 14 years. We would attend the Greer Christmas parade and take the children on the float. Roy was outstanding to always help us and participate in taking people to and from parade..to participate.. Roy walk those streets of gold.. We love you. See you in. Heaven
