“ Roy was a delight to work with. He was a very kind and patient man. Always in a good mood. We all loved to hear his stories about growing up in the mountains. We have often recalled some of his comments and laugh, once again. He certainly loved his family and going to the lake. He always spoke very proudly of you, Faye and of both his children and grandchildren. He was the last of the retired salesmen to go. I know they are all reunited now, playing jokes on each other, counting the cars and fighting over who is up next. Our thoughts are with you.

“ Dear Faye, I am so sorry for your loss. I think about you often and I hope that you and your family will find some comfort in knowing that people care so much. I lost my mother on April 15th and it was so hard but god will watch over us and heal the hurt one day at a time. Love Fran Fowler###imported-begin###FRAN FOWLER###imported-end###
