“ Dear Family of Ruth and Royce,
Memories of Royce go back into the 30s in Taylors, and my last memory of seeing him was in 1943 in Taylors. I have kept up with Royce and his family in happy and sad times. He was blessed in growing up with a wonderful and loving family, and then came his beloved Ruth, followed by his own dear family. You all have been blessed by having a Father who was indeed a good man. May The Lord that Royce loved grant you Peace-Love-Joy. “ To the family: We are sorry about the lost of Mr. Cannada. He was a very nice neighbor. He loved to show our kids, Jon, Jess, Jada & Joy his rock collections. Joy, 7, thought it was a miracle that Mr. Cannada had so found so many nice rocks. Please feel free to call us if you need anything during this time.
Love In Christ and God Bless,
