“ Great Aunt Ruby taught me how to crochet the family heirloom baby booties when she was in her 80's. We sat in Aunt Aileen's den and I watched and counted and documented the stitches. It's a precious memory of a precious lady!

Just a side note for the family. I've been digging deep in the families ancestors and cross referencing information to be sure it true. Did anyone in the family know that Ruby Lee Taylor was a descendant of Pocahontas!? Well she was!
