“ Darrell,

I want to express my sympathy in the passing of your mom. During our adolescent years when our parents were great friends and we were influenced most by that group of people, I remember Ruby as a person with a kind and loving spirit. Cake after church on Sunday night was a special communion we shared. You and I are the only ones left from that fellowship now.

Having experienced the emotion of losing both parents I understand some of your grief. Please know that I will remember you in my prayers the following days. That is where the mystery of faith takes over and I am so glad it is there in times like this.

*Most sincerely,

“ Dear Darrell & Family,

My Thoughts and Prayers are with you each. May God continue to Bless you with much strength and comfort you in a way only he can do. I had the privilege to work with Ruby from 1974 to 1990 at State Auto and she was certainly a Blessing to me and so many others. I have so many fond memories of our days at State Auto.

With My Deepest Sympathy
