“ Kelley , Margaret & Seay family, I know you will miss Ruth. The few times we were with her were injoyable her company. She is now with the one who loved her very much & in no pain.
We love you,

“ My prayers are with you and your family in Mrs. Seay going home to be with the Lord. I had many pleasant visits with her while she was in the hospital. She always looked forward to my being there and she shared many times how much she loved her children and family. I know that your hearts are broken but know that she looked forward to the day when she would be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She is now walking those streets of gold now! May the Lord comfort and encourage you. John Mason, Chaplain; Corporate
