“ To the family of Sam Brown:

On behalf of Papa John's, I would like to express our sorrow for your loss. It is a sad time when you lose someone that you love so dearly. No comfort is quite enough to replace the loss. Hold tight to your memories as you think of Sam each day and he will always be with you. May those memories grant you strength and peace. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Dorothy Mitchiner##imported-end##

“ Dear Brown family,

I am very sorry to hear of your recent loss. I would like to extend my condolences to the family at this time.

I cannot imagine the sadness and pain that the family must be going through at this difficult time. When we lose a loved one in death, we wonder where we can find comfort. Gods word can help us in this regard. The Bible at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4, calls God the father of tender mercies and the God of ALL comfort, who comforts us during all our tribulations. Isn't this encouraging to know? No matter what we are going through, God can comfort us and give us the strength to cope with any trial that comes our way.

The Bible holds out a wonderful hope for the dead. At John 5:28-29, it promises us that those who are in Gods memory will be resurrected. So we have the prospect of being reunited with our loved ones again.

When Jesus Christ was on the earth, he showed that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his good friend Lazarus.(John 11:11-44). On another occasion, he brought back the only son of a widow.(Luke 7:11-17). Please know that God and his son Jesus yearn to do the same thing for your family.(Job 14:13-15).

In your spare time pleas read: Revelation 21:3-4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, 1 Corinthians 15:26.

It is my sincere wish that these scriptures bring the family comfort as well as hope.

Sincerely,

Sandra##imported-begin##Sandra##imported-end##
