“ We have lost a wonderful man and a true friend. Steve was one of the sweetest men I know, always a smile, always a willing hand to help. He has been a part of my life since my childhood, through him Debbie came into our lives and then the girls and later their families. So many blessings. He will be missed by all who knew him, and I'm thankful for the times we had together. Good, good memories.

“ Elizabeth, So sorry to hear about Steve's death. My family knew yours when we were members at First Presbyterian Church until we moved in 1964. I was in your cousin Carole's Sunday School class. I still have fond memories of the people I knew at First Presbyterian Church. The Dillard family is among those people. My deepest sympathy goes out to all of you.

Brant, thank you for remembering us. We have been blessed with wonderful memories of good friends and family that have been a part of our lives. We miss Steve so much, but we are comforted knowing he is reunited with his wife Debbie and our other loved ones in heaven.

“ Steve and I played on two different teams together. We've been friends many years and when I assess our relationship, one word seems to reign supreme and that is "unselfishness". He put others before himself. My heart and prayers goes out to the family and I'm richer for having had him in my life.

Thank you, Buddy. Dad was that way with his family at home also. He has taught us a lot about what unselfishness looks like.
