

Sandy Hammond

August 16, 1956 - June 11, 2018

Sandra “Sandy” Kay Broome Hammond, 61, passed away June 12, 2018. A native of Greenville County, she was a daughter of the late Billy and Bobbie Broome.

Surviving are two daughters, Lori Hammond Lindley of Taylors and Stacey Hammond Gillespie of Taylors; a sister, Barbara McCall of Hendersonville, North Carolina; and five grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Tribute Wall

MD

“ I miss my Aunt Sandy, so much. She was very big part of my childhood and teenagers. 2018 was hard year for me and my family. My Papa passed away(Boots Hammond). I couldn't have been blessed with such a great papa. He helped all of his kids when it came time to watch his grandchildren. Then I lost my Aunt Sandy. Then maybe month later Glenn's dad passed away. I know they're in a better place. But after a year has passed you would think the pain would pass but it hasn't for me. Especially when comes to my Aunt Sandy. I'm really having a hard time dealing with it. She was a great mom, aunt and beautiful person. And always made me laugh. My only saving grace at papa's funeral was I got to see her and she got to see my three kids almost all grown up. I can remember like it was yesterday that I got to hug her neck twice and told her I LOVED her. Little did I know it be the last time I would get to hug her and tell her I LOVED HER

*Miss you and Love you Aunt Sandy,
Melissa Hammond Davis*

Melissa Hammond Davis - July 27, 2019 at 01:34 PM

DT

“ Sandy is one of the most caring people I have ever known. She always wanted to help others. Her heart was so big. She loved her family with everything in her. My heart is broken. She will be missed. One day we will see each other again. Till then goodbye my wonderful friend. May her family have peace and comfort.

Donna Tollison - June 25, 2018 at 04:30 PM

Linda
Brown

“ *Mrs Sandy was a sweet caring lady. She will be missed at The Potter's House.
God has another Angel.*

Linda Brown - June 17, 2018 at 12:06 AM