“ Sara was such an important part of my family as she and George shared many special occasions with my family. She was always such a lady and I admired her love for beauty, yard, house, etc. It was always special to see her house decorated for the holidays. For many years, she shared handmade Christmas ornaments with me for birthdays, etc. These are used each year on a special tree in our home. I am so sorry that we will not be able to attend the services but will remember her for many years to come. Love, Hilda Vaughn Carter
