

Sarah Brandt

December 7, 1936 - February 2, 2014

Sarah Elizabeth Frick Brandt, 77, died February 2, 2014, with her husband of 55 years by her side.

A native of Little Mountain, South Carolina, daughter of the late Bennett Viron and Ruth Putnam Frick. A graduate of Winthrop College, she received a masters degree from the University of South Carolina.

She was a loving mother, retired teacher, Girl Scout leader, past president of Palmetto State Airstream club, and a member of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Surviving are her husband, Fred Brandt of the home; four children; and ten grandchildren.

Visitation will be held on Friday at 2:00 pm at Redeemer Lutheran Church followed by a memorial service conducted by Rev. Scottie Burkhalter and Rev. Lavaughn Keisler.

Online condolences may be made at www.the.woodmortuary.com

Instead of flowers, Sarah would prefer memorials to be made to the Redeemer Lutheran Church picnic shelter fund.

“ Just want you to know how sorry I am to hear about Sarah's passing. Sarah was a dear friend and I will miss her greatly. We shared many interests from school to flower gardening. She and I exchanged many flowers and they will remind me of her each time I see them. You had a very special lady --- she was very kind, generous, and loving.

Sincerely,
Susan Mitchell

“ Fred and family.
We were sorry to hear of Sarah's death. We have such fond memories of all of you when you lived in West Columbia and attended Our Saviour Lutheran Church. Sarah was a very special lady. Our daughter Sonya was one of the Girl Scouts in her troop at OSLC. Sonya enjoyed being in her troop and learned so much about life from her. Sarah was a hard worker, a great teacher, and participated in many of the church activities. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this sad time. God bless you all.
