

Sarah Cook

February 28, 1941 - May 11, 2009

Heading: Sarah Cook

Dateline: Greer

Sarah Ruth Smith Cook, 68, of 1 27th Street, died May 11, 2009 at Greenville Memorial Hospital.

A native of Spartanburg County, daughter of the late Frank A. Smith and Annie Mae Mills Hassie, she was a member of Praise Cathedral.

Surviving are four daughters, Debra Kessler of Winder, Georgia, Renee Shelnut of Miami, Florida, Sara Campbell of Warner Robbins, Georgia, and Gerri Henderson of Maryville, Tennessee; three sons, Terry Bryant of Greenville, Michael Sparks of Duluth, Georgia, and Dale Childress of Lyman; seven siblings; fourteen grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Cryptside services will be held 11:00 a.m. Thursday at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens Mausoleum, conducted by Rev. Ansel Smith.

Visitation will be held after the service cryptside.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.

+

Previous Events

Service

MAY 14. 11:00 AM.

Cryptside

Visitation

MAY 14. 11:30 AM - 12:00 PM.

Cryptside

Tribute Wall

“ I MISS YOU SO MUCH!!!!!! I LOVE YOU ALWAYS!!!! I wish I could have talked to you before you left. I can't wait to see you again!!!##imported-begin##Leslie Peters##imported-end##

June 09, 2009 at 10:26 PM

“ Sara as many times as we have discussed our FATHER IN HEAVEN, I know beyond a shadow of a doubt and that is the most wonderful gift you could ever given to me and you have given me so very much and i am very happy that i always told you just how much and you did the same for me always. You are the best friend I ever had here on earth. There was nothing and I mean nothing that we did not either experience together or discuss. many time in the past few years we have pretended to go places and do things and never leave our houses. It was less trouble and less expensive and we enjoyed it all just as much since we had both been there- done that already anyway. you lit up every room that we ever walked into with that wonderful personality winning smile and the love that you radiate, wherever you are. I know in my heart that although you haven't even been there in heaven even a second yet but you have already given blessings as you always did here. Sara, you mean so very much to me that I can't even begin to say how much I miss you. I will always pray for your children as we both usually did and you look up Billy and tell him how much I wanna see him again. I have written a few scriptures for us to remember until we see each other again. HALLALUHAH! You have arrived and are just going to start your eternel life. Praise his HOLY name!

Hebrews 4:14-16

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the son of God let us hold fast our profession.* For we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are yet without sin.

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. *##imported-begin##Linda Riley,Maw Mccann##imported-end##

May 14, 2009 at 11:06 PM

“ Ms. Cook's mind was sharp as a tack. She really seemed to care about others. I'm sorry for your loss!##imported-begin##Leslie Ragsdale##imported-end##

May 14, 2009 at 02:59 PM

“ We delivered Meals on Wheels to Sarah during the last six months of her life. We got to know her as a dear, sweet lady. The past few weeks we were missing her and feared something might be wrong. We will miss her, but faith tells us that now she is in a much better place.

Our sincere, heartfelt condolences to all her family members, loved ones, and friends.##imported-begin##Angie and Bill Henry##imported-end##

May 13, 2009 at 02:40 PM

“ I am writing to express my love for my mother. Sarah was a beautiful mother, wife, friend, sister, daughter and person, from the inside-out. She always lit up the room when she entered. My most impactful memories of my mother was how even in a crowd of people, she could zero on you and make you feel that you were the most important person in the room. She loved hard, she loved long. She was never paid back for her love here on earth. But she is with Jesus, now. And He has more love to give her than anyone on this earth. She is alive with Jesus and is in all glory with our Savior. My sadness is selfish, because I can not call her or go and sit at the kitchen table and hear her say to me "I love you Debbie." But, I know that my hope is in Christ, and in due season, I will be able to hug my mother and hear her say once again. "I will always love YOU."

In Sweet loving memory,

Debbie Kessler##imported-begin##Debra Kessler##imported-end##

May 13, 2009 at 11:44 AM