

Sarah S. Glenn

April 25, 1925 - March 22, 2023

Sarah Frances Sanders Glenn, widow of Fred E. Glenn went to be with her Lord March 22, 2023.

On April 25, 1925, Sarah was born to the late Irene Guest and Samuel Denard Sanders of Anderson, SC.

After completing her secondary education in Anderson schools, she attended Anderson College and then Furman University from which she received a BA degree in 1946. Upon college graduation, she began her teaching career at Greer Senior High School where she taught history and coached women's basketball until 1951. During this time in Greer, she met and married Fred Glenn; and shortly thereafter, they moved to Jackson, SC for Fred to work with DuPont at the Savannah River Plant. Nearby Jackson schools needed teachers, so Sarah taught school there until returning to Greer in 1955. As she and Fred now had children, she did not teach again until 1968 when she began teaching English at Blue Ridge High School from which she retired in 1988. During her years at Blue Ridge, she taught senior English, served as senior advisor, and took her students on spring trips to Washington, DC. She loved teaching, encouraging her students and rejoicing in their successes. In addition to teaching, mother loved her church family. When she and Fred married, she became a member of Memorial United Methodist Church; and over the years, she served in numerous capacities: children's Sunday School teacher and superintendent; chaperone on youth trips; participant in mission trips; UMW, FLC planning committee, and Board of Trustees member. She shared her lifelong love of sports, as coach of the Memorial women's softball and basketball teams of which she has many great memories. Not only did Sarah enjoy sports throughout her life but also loved music. She learned to play the violin as a child and over the years played for church services, weddings, and family hymn singing.

Surviving are her son Dr. Robert F. Glenn and wife Martha; daughter Fredda G. Chariker (Edd d.); grandchildren: Dr. Sarah Ann Rogers (Chris), Frederick Chariker, Chris Chariker (Emily), Rachel Borem (Jake), Katherine Anderson (Matt), David Glenn (Christian), eleven great grandchildren, and beloved nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews.

Sarah is predeceased by her three brothers, one sister, husband Fred, son Frank B. Glenn, and grandson Robert F. Glenn.

Visitation will be held 12:30-1:45 pm, Saturday, March 25, 2023, in the Memorial United Methodist Church sanctuary.

Funeral services will be held 2:00 pm Saturday, March 25, 2023, at Memorial United Methodist Church. Burial will follow in Mountain View Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Memorial United Methodist Church, 201 North Main Street, Greer, SC 29650.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.

“ Miss Sanders was my 8th grade history teacher at Greer. She was great; very knowledgeable and cared for her students; she married Fred after he returned from WWII. Fred was a great man; everyone liked him. Sarah lived a full life and helped so many people in so many ways. May she rest in peace.

“ Sarah was a great inspiration to so many of us who were surrounded by her presence. She was the type of person that influenced you with her Christian example and positive attitude. She was a great example of how to enjoy life while at the same time accomplishing her daily tasks.
Sarah was a friend to everyone. She encouraged and supported you in so many ways.
We will always have a warm place in our hearts for Sarah Glenn

“ My mother and father met on a blind date arranged by Sarah and Fred Glenn. Those couples remained friends for a lifetime and kept our families close. Their circle of friends grew and we enjoyed the love and support of all of them. So many stories to tell.... They enriched our lives. Now, with Sarah's passing, the last of their group is gone, but not the rich memories they left us. Thank you, Sarah, for helping us keep those memories alive with your amazing memory and love of them all. You truly blessed us.

“ In Loving Memory of my Senior Class English teacher: I wish I could see you now, to say thank you for all you taught me. For the inspiration you shared, the kindness and friendships you shared with us. We never truly appreciate someone until their gone. As for me, you were a favorite. I fondly remember seeing you after lunch. You would reapply your red lipstick and look so pretty. You cared so deeply for each of us and we knew your heart was for us to do our best...to be our best and face life with courage. With my heart and soul I am grateful for what you gave to me. I will see again...wait for me.
