“ Sending my sympathy and prayers during this time of grief. May you know peace, grace and comfort as you remember the promises of our Lord, and rest in them. Sarah, we all know that you and James have had many burdens to bear during recent years. We will never understand all the reasons why in this life but someday on "Hallelujah Square" we will see our loved ones again, rejoice in His presence and all the troubles and trials will be over. We miss you both at church. I hope that you have been able to join us some on live stream. Your friend and Christian sister ~Linda Kirby-Underwood

“ I became Sara’s neighbor 6 years ago. Tons of stories were passed to me of the “older days” of her childhood and life. We spent a lot of time sitting on that short “wall” between our homes. She was a very headstrong woman, the best gardener I have ever known. A true Christian that witnessed to me often, and now an Angel with the Lord. She will be loved & missed.

Sarah and James, so sorry for your loss. I grew up on Ansel School Road and y’all were wonderful neighbors. Your Mom was a remarkable lady. Love and prayers to you during this difficult time.
