“ Sarah was such a sweet friend and definitely a spiritual inspiration! The morning of the 23rd, before she departed this life to go meet her Savior and Lord Jesus Christ, she mentioned the stack of Get Well cards she had gotten to send to those that were sick, knowing she wouldn't get to send them.

She was always so thoughtful and had encouraging words just when they were needed. We will surely miss her in Sunday School! She loved missions and missionaries - making creative little cards to help us pray for them on their birthdays. So thankful for her and for how God used her to bless so many of us!
