“ So very sorry to hear of Sarah's passing. I loved her a lot. She was such a sweet and spunky lady. I so enjoyed our conversations, laughs, and shared time at Senior Dining at Greer Community Ministries. My prayers are with all of her family during this time of grief.

“ My uncle Thurman passed away right before I was born. My aunt continued to come to family holidays and get together throughout the years and I thought that was wonderful. RIP Aunt Ann. Praying for everyone that they can find comfort going forward.
