“ Scott was our realtor through buying our first house, selling that house, and buying our current house this May. My wife and I have always found Scott to be a consummate professional, knowledgeable about his trade, and a true gentleman.

My condolences to his family, our thoughts and prayers are with them. Until I get to speak with him again on the other side I'll continue to think of Scott whenever I'm ordering coffee at that little coffeeshop we met at several times when working on an offer. Heaven has gained a wonderful soul, and we are all the poorer for it here on Earth. May your memory be eternal!

“ So sorry to hear Scott has passed. I had several dealings with him as a mortgage banker and I found him to be very professional and kind. Heaven gained another Angel and my heart goes out to his family and friends.

“ As a fellow agent at BHHS I had the pleasure of knowing Scott and he was a tremendous help to me with on my first listing. He came out to the home to give me his thoughts on price etc and I was just so impressed with his knowledge of the industry, his demeanor and his willingness to help a new agent. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. Jill Norman

“ Mrs. Holtzclaw, you and I met only a couple of times through Scott. Scott holds my great respect especially for his desire to see the right and best thing done. Scott cared deeply for the rest of us, and nothing would interfere with his drive to show that care. May the Lord bless and keep you, Mrs. Holtzclaw. May the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious. May the Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon you and give you peace. Daniel Whitten, Buyers' Inspection Group.

“ Scott was always a friendly, warm neighbor. That he had a gift for people was evident in the fact that he always greeted you by name, was a good listener and always upbeat. He will be missed by all of those who called him both neighbor and friend.
