“ Scott was one of a kind. He and my son Adam rooted for two different NASCAR drivers. I imagine them continuing their friendly feud with Heather along for the ride. RIP buddy <3

“ The Lowery and the Adams families met when Scott was a boy and became close friends, sharing all the times of their lives together, making fond memories with Kure Beach vacations and Mills River picnics along with daily activities like cooking together, playing cards together and even the mothers of the families working together. Scott and his loving wife Donna continued to be faithful visitors to Chuck and Delree Adams long after his own parents, Jack and Evelyn, and his brother Michael had passed. In the last weeks of his life he reached out to the last remaining parent, Delree, whom he considered a second mom. He was more concerned for her health than his own.

Scott showed a lot of strength and compassion in his life and we are grateful to have been a part of it so many years. We pray for the peaceful rest of his soul and for comfort to those who mourn, especially to his loving wife who brought him so much joy.
