“ Great Aunt Selma will be truly missed in our lives. I was saddened to hear of her passing as it brought up many fond memories of our times visiting her as children when we stayed at my Papa and Grandma Pittman’s house. Then later on as adults with our children. She was always delighted to see us. I shall miss sending her a Christmas card every year to remind her that we were thinking of her. God blessed her heart and the people she knew in many ways.
