“ Dear Anderson family,
I am very sorry to hear of the recent death of Sharon. I would like to take this opportunity to give the family my deepest sympathy. I know that it is a grievous thing to lose someone close to you. The shock of the loss may seem more than you can bear. Grief may take hold, causing loss of sleep, loneliness and sorrow. The loss you are now feeling may be the severest emotional experience of your life. You may even feel as King David did when his son Absalom died.(2 Samuel 18:33). You may even ask yourself such questions as: How can I endure this? Where can I turn for encouragement and help?
Without question the best encouragement that can be given is from God's word the Bible. The Bible gives the most satisfying answers to the questions: "Why do we die?" and "What hope is there for the dead?" The truth from the Bible can help to lessen the sorrow and grief that you are feeling at this time. The Bible gives us a hope for the future. God has promised to reunite families together again by means of a resurrection.(John 5:28,29)(Acts 24:15).
When Jesus Christ was here on the earth, he proved that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his friend Lazarus back from the dead.(John 11:11-44) On another occasion, he brought back to life a 12 year old girl.(Luke 8:49-56)
These miracles offer us tremendous hope for the future ,however, these are just a few of the scriptures that give us hope. I am sure these scriptures will bring you encouragement and comfort:
Revelation 21:3-4, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 33:24, Isaiah 26:19, 1 Corinthians 15:26

With all my sympathy,

“ Nicole and Family,
I am so sorry for the passing of Grandma. Her sweet spirit will live with you and your family forever. She was a very sweet and special person and I will never forget her. She will always be in my heart and I know she will always be your heart. May God continue to Bless you and your Family.##imported-begin##Miss Jackie Downs (Creative Advancement Centers)##imported-end##

“ *Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.
