“ Cheri blessed my life immeasurably during the 2 years I worked with her at IFL. She was a warm and welcoming presence with a tender heart, a kind, gentle spirit, and a wonderful sense of humor. I know you're rejoicing she's in Heaven, but missing her greatly, too. May God comfort you in this time of grief.##imported-begin##Susan Smith##imported-end##

“ Bob: We were saddened to learn about Cheri. We smile at the good times we enjoyed together going back to the Ice Cream suppers in your back yard in Colleyville; the Bible studies we shared in class, and the pizza we shared @ eFratelli's. Cheri's warm, captivating smile was always contagious making anyone near her feel relaxed and welcome. Judy and I have always valued your friendship. Today, we pray for God's grace to comfort & strengthen you during the difficult days ahead. Don & Judy Andrews; Bedford, Texas##imported-begin##Don & Judy Andrews##imported-end##

“ May all take comfort in the poem below.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am a 1,000 winds that blow
I am the diamond glints on snow
I am the sun on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled light
I am the soft star that shines at night
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there; I did not die.
~Anon.
May peace and love be with you.##imported-begin##Iris

“ What a privilege I enjoyed working with Cheri at Insight for Living. She welcomed me to a new place . . . with new friends . . . and helped me feel at home. She now enjoys that same experience.

I join with your family in offering this prayer from Scripture:

*“Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her the reward she has earned . . .” (Proverbs 31:30–31).*

In Christ,
