“ Sharon started cutting my hair when I attended Furman, and we were both 18 years old then. She continued to remain my stylist and husband's and parents for over 20 years. During this time, we became good friends. I always looked forward to seeing, talking, and laughing with her. We are greatly saddened over her death and praying God's comfort and grace for you during this time.##imported-begin##Fred and Donna Kay Lyda##imported-end##

“ I had the privilage of working with Sharon in my salon for several years. The thing I remember most about her is her big beautiful smile. Wheather yoywere talking about something funny or serious,Sharon always displayed that big beautiful smile which made her whole face light up, I lost contact with her over the years. When she left my salon to retire, many of her dear clients allowed me to take over Sharon's customers. I still do some of those people today. From time to time they would ask if I had heard from her. It saddens me and all her friends to learn of her passing. Heaven is a brighter place with her beautiful smile there.
